The IEEE Photonics Technology Letters (PTL) will publish a special issue featuring selected papers from the Asia Communications and Photonics Conference (ACP) & International Conference on Information Photonics and Optical Communications (IPOC) 2020 (ACP/IPOC 2020), scheduled for October 24th –27th 2020. This special issue offers an opportunity to expand accepted ACP/IPOC 2020 papers into IEEE Photonics Technology Letter papers, providing additional technical results and/or further discussions and insights, expanding beyond the 3-page ACP/IPOC 2020 papers. At least 40% difference is necessary. All invited full papers, best student papers, best innovation papers, best poster papers, post deadline papers presented at ACP/IPOC 2020 conference are invited to submit the extended version (4-page compliant to IEEE PTL format) of their work to this special issue. All manuscripts submitted to this issue will go through the standard review process according to the PTL review guidelines.
